

Catch a Pass from Russell Wilson and Benefit Seattle Children's Hospital!

Attention 12's! With the Seahawks regular season just around the corner, Uber and Super Bowl-winning quarterback, Russell Wilson will be serving up smiles and touchdown celebrations, benefiting Seattle Children's Hospital.

On Tuesday, September 2nd, Uber and Russell will be rolling way out of the pocket and around The Emerald City with a trunk-load of autographed footballs, delivering touchdown passes to lucky Uber users!

The Game Plan

- You can request Russell to show up wherever you are by selecting the 'RW3' icon in your Uber app.
- Set the location where you want Russell to arrive and tap 'request touchdown delivery here.'
- When you are selected, you'll receive an ETA and be able to communicate with the driver.
- Once Russell arrives, you can huddle up for the play call and he'll deliver one (1) laser-precision pass directly into your outstretched arms.
- Once you've received your autographed football, we'll bill your credit card on file $500. All proceeds will benefit Russell's favorite charity, Seattle Children's Hospital.

Extra Points

- Demand will be very high and availability will be limited as RW3 is just one man, despite what his versatility on the field may suggest.
- Available Sept. 2nd in Downtown Seattle – South Lake Union, Capitol Hill, Lower Queen Anne, and Pioneer Square from 9 AM – 7 PM.
- Share your experience on Twitter Instagram and Facebook using the hashtag #UberRW3 and we'll pick our five favorites to win two (2) tickets to the Seahawks regular season home opener against The Green Bay Packers, Thursday Sept, 6th at CenturyLink Field!

Hustle like Russell to your Uber app and get ready to go long!
